

Draft
4 October 1962

PROTECTION OF INTELLIGENCE DATA

1. 1. This chapter shall apply within the admiralty and maritime
2. jurisdiction of the United States, on the high seas and elsewhere, as well
3. as within the United States.
4. 2. For the purposes of this act the term "Intelligence Data"
5. means information and materials which (a) for reasons of national security
6. are specifically designated for limited or restricted distribution or dissem-
7. ination by a department or agency of the United States authorized by the
8. President so to designate and which (b) are obtained by, or used in
9. intelligence activities of the United States concerning foreign countries
10. and foreign nationals connected with such intelligence activities and
11. includes but is not limited to (1) notes, models, instruments, appliances,
12. facts, statistics, analyses, sketches, drawings, pictures, maps, graphic
13. representation and photographs; (2) intelligence sources and methods;
14. (3) reports, evaluations and estimates; and (4) procedures, equipment,
15. techniques, devices and methods used in the collection and production of 16. intelligence data.
17. 3. Whoever being or having been an officer or employee of any
18. department or agency of the United States, being or having been a member
19. of the armed forces, or being or having been a contractor of any department
20. or agency of the United States or being or having been an employee of a

1. contractor of any department or agency of the United States and in the
2. course of such relationship becomes possessed of Intelligence Data,
3. knowingly, directly, or indirectly imparts, discloses, publishes, divulges,
4. or makes known in any manner, or causes to be imparted, disclosed,
5. published, divulged, or made known in any manner, such Intelligence Data
6. or any part thereof to any person not entitled to receive Intelligence Data
7. under law or executive order or rules and regulations of any department or
8. agency of the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000 or
9. imprisoned not more than ten years or both.

10. 4. Whoever being or having been an officer or employee of any
11. department or agency of the United States, being or having been a member
12. of the armed forces, or being or having been a contractor of any department
13. or agency of the United States or being or having been an employee of a
14. contractor of any department or agency of the United States and in the course
15. of such relationship becomes possessed of Intelligence Data, knowingly,
16. directly or indirectly attempts to impart, disclose, publish, divulge, or
17. make known in any manner, or attempts to cause to be imparted, disclosed,
18. published, divulged, or made known in any manner such Intelligence Data
19. or any part thereof to any person not entitled to receive Intelligence Data
20. under law or executive order or rules and regulations of any department or

1. agency of the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000 or
2. imprisoned not more than ten years or both.

3. 5. In the interests of the security of the intelligence activities of
4. the United States the departments and agencies having responsibility for
5. the protection of Intelligence Data from unauthorized disclosure are
6. hereby authorized to promulgate with the approval of the President rules
7. and regulations for the protection of such Intelligence Data from unauthorized
8. disclosure and for ascertaining and investigating any unauthorized disclosure.

9. 6. Whenever in the judgment of the Attorney General any person
10. has engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute
11. or will constitute a violation of this act, or any regulation or order issued
12. thereunder, or Section 798 of Title 18 United States Code, the Attorney
13. General on behalf of the United States may make application to the 14. appropriate court for an order enjoining such act or practices or for an
15. order enforcing compliance with the provisions of this act, or any
16. regulation or order issued thereunder, or Section 798 of Title 18 United
17. States Code, and upon a showing that such person has engaged or is about
18. to engage in any acts or practices a permanent or temporary injunction,
19. restraining order, or other order may be granted.

3. Agency Legislative Program

"... shall include all items of legislation... which an agency contemplates proposing to Congress... during the coming session."

"... shall also include... legislative proposals under intensive consideration... which have not yet reached the stage of inclusion in... proposed legislative program..."

"Submission of legislative proposals pursuant to this section does not constitute a request for Bureau advice."

"... 10 copies of the program shall be transmitted to the Bureau at the same time as the annual budget submission."

"Attachment A provides... detailed instructions..."

4. Coordination and clearance of agency proposed legislation and reports.

1. 7. No person shall be prosecuted, tried or punished for any
2. violation of this act unless the indictment is found or the information
3. is instituted within ten years next after the commission of the offense.